In Appreciation ...

It has been a pleasure for me to have been associated with you students of the College at Clarion who are the sponsors of this Annual. I feel closest of all to those of you who are about to qualify for the degree. You are best known to me and occupy, in consequence, the warmest place in my affections. The others, I can assure you, I will never forget either. The activities of my life as father and teacher, as you know, have brought me into close contact with many young men and young women. I have learned much from and through them. To none of them, however, do I owe more than I do to you. I want to thank you for what you have done and been. It has been a joy to note your willingness, your loyalty, your co-operation, and your growth. My best wishesfor your happiness and success go with you.

Dr. Riemer

Commendation...

The Sequelle is the record of one year of your college life when you are living life at its fullest. The activities herein recorded are making an impression upon you so that henceforth the word college will turn your mind toward Clarion and these years spent here. It is my wish that these years may be most happy ones. The friendships you are forming now will be lifelong. The interests you are developing in the activities pictured in this book will be your future recreations. Some of them may even become vocations. You are to be commended on the splendid student cooperative plan that has made this book possible. It is an experience that will help you in your work with people and organizations in later life.

Panhellenic Council

The Panhellenic Council is the governmental body representing the five sororities on the campus. The organization consists of fifteen members, an active, a silent, and an alumna representative from each of these sororities: Delta Sigma Epsilon, Lambda Chi Delta, Sigma Delta Phi, Sigma Sigma Sigma, and Theta Alpha Lambda. Guiding and directing these girls is the very capable Miss Margaret Boyd.

The object of the Panhellenic association is fourfold: to determine the date of bid day, to pass and enforce rush rules, to regulate other matters pertaining to local Panhellenic life, and to encourage all chapters to take an active part in all school activities that are for the common good. This year the local Council started a scholarship fund equal to one semester's tuition. This is to be given to an upper-class girl who will be chosen by a Panhellenic representative, Miss Margaret Boyd, and Dr. Chandler.

The holding of office in the Council is controlled by a rotation system. The officers for the first semester were: president, Ruth Lidstone, Sigma Delta Phi; secretary, Betty Kanangeiser, Theta Alpha Lambda; for the second semester: president, Mary Jones, Lambda Chi Delta; secretary, Dora Boario, Delta Sigma Epsilon; treasurer, Betty Dunne, Sigma Sigma Sigma.

The Panhellenic tea, held in September, was the first event on the Council's social calendar, to which all the women students on the campus were invited. The purpose of this tea was to acquaint the old students with the new. The next event was the annual Panhellenic dinner, which was held on December + . The last social event of the year was the Panhellenic dance, held on March 12. To the dance, were invited sorority women living in the community who are affiliated with either the National Panhellenic Council or the Association of Education Sororities.

Delta Sigma Epsilon, national educational sorority, was founded September 23, 1914, at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio. Alpha Zeta Chapter was established at Clarion on May 15, 19.32.

Six artive members hegan the work this year. They were: Virgina Kaufman, president; Mary Belle Calhoun, vice-president; Dora Boario, recording secretary and sergeant; Geraldine Thorne, corresponding seeretary; Dorothy Kiaufman, treasurer; Louise Furlong, chaplain and historian; and Miss Helen M. Barton, faculty adviser. On Deeember 6, 1936, another member, Isabel Bonnett, was added to the group, and subsequently elected sergeant. Following her initiation, a party was held at Geraldine Thorne's home to celebrate the oceasion. Patronesses of the chapter are Mrs. Merritt Davis, Mrs. W. B. Rankin, and Miss Bertha Leifeste.

In the fall rush week was featured by a dinner and theater party in Oil City. The following week a re-pledging service was held for lsabel Bonnett, Dorothy Fischer, and Muriel Wolsteneroft, and the following rushees were pledged: Margaret Akers, Marie Crawford, Catherine Daugherty, Helen Deily, Louise Dunkle, Grace Giles, Eleanor Laughner, Betty MeCue, Kay Minns, Hattie Plant, Ethelyn Smith, and Jane Speidel.

At Christmas time, a program was prepared hy the pledges for Miss Leifeste's kindergarten children. The annual Christmas party was attended by both pledges and actives.

Two active members, Virginia Kaufman and Geraldine Thorne, and one alumna, Mary Helen lilepfer, attended the national convention of the sorority held the latter part of last August in Sit. Louis, Mo. During this eonelave, Alpha Zeta Chapter was presented with the Genevieve Schmitt Marshall Memorial Plaque for having the highest sehofastic average of all thirty chapters throughout the United states.

Sigma Sigma Sigma

Sigma Sigma Sigma is a national sorority. It is the oldest of the education sororities. Since the founding of Alpha chapter at Farmville, Virginia, in April 1898, the purpose of Sigma Sigma Sigma, "to build character, to stimulate high endeavor, to develop leadership, to promote unselfish cooperation, and to create the friendly spirit in all human relationships" has been furthered by the work of thirty three ehapters. Alpha Pi Chapter was established in April, 1935.

Priscilla Siar attended the national convention in Washington, D. C. last August. She came home inspired by her contacts with Mabel Lee Walton, national president, the other national officers, and the many "Tri Sig" sisters whom she met there. This enthusiasm stirred anew the feeling which the regional meet at Pittshurgh had aroused last year. With chapter examinations over, the sorority is looking forward to a visit from Mabel Lee Walton for the purpose of chapter inspection.

Last October an informal dinner at Cook Forest Inn and the show "Swing Time" at Brookville constituted the "rush" party. A very delightful Christmas party was held in the sorority room. The second semester the group held a rush party on Washington's Birthday at the home of Marie Trunk, an alumna. Several other parties of various kinds were enjoyed. During the first semester the sorority conducted a "charm school" in conjunction with the entire national group, in which there were many interesting and informative discussions

The officers serving this year were: president, Priscilla Siar; vice president Lucille Rockey; corresponding secretary, Helen Flynn; recording secretary, Mildred Dietz; treasurer, Betty Dunne.

In February, Niss Heten Armstrong, sponsor of the Lambda Chi Delta sorority, resigned her position as secretary to the President to take a new position in Washington, D. C. leaving a vacancy in the sorority sponsorship. Mrs. D. D. Pierce, first sponsor of the sorority acted in this position until April the first when Miss Frances Eastey accepted the invitation to sponsor the group.

Topping the years activities were the two rushing periods. In the early fall a formal rushing party was held at the Bostonia Country Club. At this time Betty Humphreys, Joan Kroh and Betty Grimm, all of Clarion, were pledged to the sorority and formally initiated at the end of the pledge period. Again in March open rushing brought two more members, namety Zora Saula of Johnstown and Georgina Hahn of Kinox.
"Cookie Day" was a regular monthly occurrenee for the Lambda Chi's. On that day they sold cookies of all sizes, shapes, and kinds to students on the campus.
social functions of the year included hikes, slumber parties, theater "dates", (amping, pienics, Saturday eve get-togethers, swimming parties and covered dish dinners.

A budget was planned and earried out during the year with a certain amount allotted for camp and for the sorority loan fund. The fund was increased to sixty five dollars.

The officers of the sorority are: president, Bessie Swarm; viee president, Lorraine Griffity; Secretary, Marion Renn; treasurer, Helen Stewart; Pan Hellenic representative, Mary Joye Jones; silent representative, Joan Nroh.

Sigma Delta Phi

The Sigma Delta Phi Sorority, the oldest sorority on the campus, was founded in November, 1930.

Miss Bertha V. Nair is the sponsor. The officers of the sorority for the first semester were: Bernadine Stewart, president; Florence Gathers, vice-president; Ruth Lidstone, treasurer; and Eleanor Fulton, secretary. For the second semester the officers were: Florence Gathers, president; Eva Murdock, vice-president; Eleanor Fulton, treasurer; and Eileen Burkett, secretary. PanHellenic representatives are: Ruth Lidstone, active; Bernadine Stewart, silent. The patronesses of the sorority are: Mrs. Harry Wilson, Mrs. Lloyd Weaver, and Miss Helen Jasper, all of Clarion, and Mrs. Anuabel Ralston of Butler, Pennsylvania.

The Sigma Delta Phi Sorority has been quite active during this year. For the past two years they have published a sorority paper called the News Letter. By this paper the alumnae are kept well informed about sorority affairs, alumnae news, and personals concerning the actives and pledges. Each year the Sigma Delta Phis spend a week during the month of August on Lake Erie.

The girls of the sorority are fond of outdoor life. This is proved by the fact that they were often found cooking an early morning breakfast in Knapp's Woods. During the year the girls have enjoyed social affairs including picnics, dinners, parties, and breakfasts.

Bennett, Menteer, Hawk, Wolff, Duniap, Kanengeiser, Trimble, Alcorn, Slagle, Longwell.

The first event of the Thetas in the fall of ' 36 was a rush party which consisted of a dinner at the Business Woman's Club and a theatre party at Franklin. Soon after Rush Week, the girls initiated Helen Aleorn, Martha Dunlap, Janet Trimble, and Joan Wolff. Another very delightful oceasion of the year was the Christmas party given at the home of a patroness, Mrs. C. F. Beeker. Mrs. Harry Renn, another patroness, was cohostess. At the regular meetings of both semesters. Theta Alpha Lambda had a number of interesting and helpful programs.

The second semester rush party was an evening theatre party followed by a lunch at the Coffee Shop. At this party the Thetas also entertained Mrs. Donald Megahan, a new patroness. After the mid-semester rush party, Geneva Heffner beeame a member of this sorority. In February Hazel Bennett entertained the girls at a "George Washington" party, and to complete this year of social activities, the Thetas entertained their Alumnae members with a "Gypsy" party. The Alumnae and aetive members came attired in gypsy dress and spent the evening playing games. The sorority has an amual camping trip in August of each year.

This year officers for the group were : president, Hazel Bennett, vice-president, Betty Kanengeiser; secretary, Geraldine Slagle; treasurer, Mary Olive Longwell.

Alpha Phi Alpha

The Alpha Phi Alpha's school calendar has been full of social affairs. Officers directing the fraternity this year were: president, Neal Guthrie; vice-president, Willard Miller; secretary, Morgan Jones: corresponding secretary, Dean McKinney; treasurer, Fred Marshall. The main activities of the year were the initiation rite at Camp Coffman, rush parties at Mr. Mansons and at Founders Hall, house parties at Fred Marshall's, William Marshall's and Bill Phero's homes, and a swimming party at the Oil City Y.M.C.A. A special party was held at Christmas at Bill Phero's house and another at Art Carn's house for the winning side of an attendance contest. A joint party was held with the other social fraternity at the Garby Theater, and an inter-fraternity dance was held as usual.

To top the school year off, an initiation was held this spring for Budd Kribbs and Chester Byerly at Fred Marshall's house, and an outing was planned at the end of school.

Every summer the fraternity spends a week on Lake Erie, swimming, going places, and having a good time in general. The members feel that the organization does a great deal towards enriching college life.

The school year 1936-1937 initiated a year filled with stirring activity in the Alpha Gamma Phi Fraternity. Edward Jacobs was chosen president for the first semester. The other offices were filled by Bronie Smolak, vice president: Theodore McDonald. secretary; Edward schierberl, treasurer; and Joe Andreo, historian.

The second semester new officers were elected with William Byers as president. Charles Reed, vice president; Paul Ciriffin. secretary, Marcus Priester, treasurer; and Charles Hetrick, historian.

Social activities and pledging marked the season's central interests. The Alpha Gammas invited the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity to a theater party in the fall. A Christmas party was held at the home of Thomas Hossack, and later the members were entertained at the home of Charles Reed. The Interfraternity dance was held April 3 in Becht Hall with Norm Parks furnishing the music. The annual banquet was held late in the spring.

We have had about twenty-five meetings this year. Outstanding results of these meetings have been several social activities and an educational project called "Publicity in Education," by which we tried to advertise our college to surrounding high schools. The social activities included a party at the time of inititation of eight new members in December, and a semiformal dinner-theater party held at DuBois, March 23. To the latter were invited wives and women friends of the members.

Morgan Jones was fortunate in heing able to go to the Grand Chapter meeting held at St. Louis, Missouri, on February 27. He took an active part in the proceedings.

Miss Margaret A. Boyd is faculty adviser. Other active members include Miss Maric Marwiek, director of dramatics at the College, Marian Remn, John Haskell. Dean McKinney, and William Marshall. The three last named were initiated during the present school year.

One of the activities of the first semester was the project of directing group activities within the campus dramatic organization, the College Players. Each of five groups- technique of acting, puppetry, make-up, stage management. and theory of play writing-was headed by a memher of the honorary group. Members of the Cast also participated in all activitics of other organizations on the campus in whieh any part of the field of dramatics was involved.

During the year, the Cast attended one movie. "Anthony Adverse" and one play, presented by the dramatic group at Allegheny College. In addition, a banquet was held in the spring at which the alumni members, who were initiated May 15. 1936, were entertained.

Alpha [psilon Cast was estahlished January 17, 19,36, after the eharter had heen granted on January 6. It is one of over a hundred chapters of Alpha Psi Omega. Chapters are to be found in such leading colleges and universities as Washington and Lee, Bethany, Rutgers, Colgate, and Renselacr. Among Pennsylvania institutions in which chapters are to he found, may be listed Washington and Jefferson, Muhlenlurg. ## Pi Gamma Mu and International Relations Club ..

On alternate Tuesday evenings a group of students and faculty members gather around a table in seminar fashion to discuss national and international problems. This group is known as the International Relations Club, an organization established on the campus during the second semester of the year 1936-37. The Clarion club is one of a number now found in various colleges and universities.

The International Relations Club was established in Clarion by Pi Gamma Mu, the National Social Science Honor Society. Because its work was similar to that carried on by Pi Gamma Mu previously, it seemed advisable that an International Relations Club be organized so that persons interested in the social sciences, but not eligible for membership in Pi Gamma Mu because of college rank or course of study, might be privileged to participate in such activities. The officers, the same for both organizations are: president, Geraldine Thorne; secretary, treasurer, Louise Furlong. Subjects discussed during the club meetings were: Capital versus Labor, Social Security, Co-operatives, and Problems of the Far East.

Hostess Club . .

The main purpose of the Hostess Club is to raise the social standing of the school by instructing the girls in the proper ways of conducting themselves. This training is very necessary, and the girls consider it as an essential part of their education.

Some girls ask, "What is considered a formal gown?" "Where does this silver belong?" "What dress would be appropriate?" These are some of the questions on which our meetings are based. At our first meeting we discussed "Parliamentary Rules." In our calendar of events we included such topics as "Personal Cleanliness," "Invitations and Answers," "Charm," "Appropriate Dress," and other interesting and helpful subjects.

The officers of the club for the first semester were: Fern Brooks, president; Avanelle Menteer, vice-president; Helen Deily, secretary-treasurer. Joan Wolff, as acting program committee chairman, arranged the topics of discussion for each meeting. With the arrival of the second semester came the following officers: Helen Deily, president; and Ethlyn Smith, secretary-treasurer.

The club is under the direction if Miss Sims, adviser, who guides the hostesses, enabling them to be better fitted socially. This phase of college life is not only practical now, but also will be of great advantage in the future.

N. A. C. E. Club . . .

Beeanse this year is the one hundredth amiverary of the kindergarten. the Clarion branch of the National Association for Childhood Edueation selected as its theme for the year "The Kindergarten." The new kindergarten at Clarion, under the direction of Mis: Leifete, is the center of our study. It is logical that the eluh should use the kindergatem romes for its meetings.

In the monthly metings the members have disetrsed the origination of the movement and how it has progresied through the years. The group took special interest in modern kindergart on, studying their values and types of activities. At the lieginning of the year the group divided into smaller units to construct materials for the local kindergarten. Doll clothes, furniture making, and painting ocerupied these grouys in a praetical and henefieial way.

Spectial activities for the year have included sending monery to help in the floofl stricken areas, having story hours, and selling Zonor-13loser eversharp prencils. The club also expeets to sponsor a moving pieture.

This branch of N.A.C.E. has thirty five active memlers. The officers of the eluh are: president. Murial Wolstencroft; viee-president, Dorothy Fiseher; porresponding seeretary, Mary Chitester; reeording speretary, Evelyn Craig: treasurer. Hazel Bennett. During the year three new members were taken into the association. These new officers were: viee-president, Ellen songer; reeording seeretary. Helen stewart; corresponding seeretary. Isabe] shields. Miss Frances Easley is our adviser.

Geography Club . . .

The Geography Club has experienced an active club-ycar under the leadership of President Dale, Secretary Stewart, and Sponsor Kuhner. The club members were fortunate in being able to inake a trip to the United States Weather Bureau offices in the Federal Building at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, to learn something of the functions of the staff. Among other places visited that day was the Pittsburgh Press newspaper plant and radio station KDKA.

At each club meeting some phase of geography was reported upon or discussed. One meeting was spent observing an clementary geography class in session at the local public school.

Late in the first semester the club visited the brick plant at Summerville, Pennsylvania, where the many processes in brick manufacturing were observed. A company guide gave valuable explanations to the members.

The clubs program for the second semester consisted of a detailed study of Clarion borough. A large map was made to show all residences and business establishments. By such a comprehensive study the students have gained valuable knowledge of cultural adjustments and experience in map artistry.

Art Club . . .

> If you hold your nose to the grind-stone rough. A nd you hold it down there long enough You will leorn to say there is no such thing As flowers that bloom and birds that sing.

In the art elub, college students find no reason or necessity for holding their noses "to the grind-stone rough" or dulling their sensibilities to the "flowers that bloom and the birds that sing." The art elub consists of a group of students who are alert to that whieh is beautiful and interesting from a creative point of view. This interest expresses itself for the most part in handierafts. The boys in the elub this year have taken pleasure in woodburning. The girls have made decorative designs for bracelets, finger rings and napkin rings. In February the club invited the Hostess Club to their "Beaux Arts" Ball, where a jolly time was enjoyed by every one present. Art club members work conscientiously, but freely, and believe in a philosophy of life in which happiness for its own sake has a very definite place.

During the first semester the officers of the elub were: Lorraine Griffith, president; Robert Crissman, seeretary-treasurer; Bessie swarm, recording angel. The second semester, the offices were held respeetively ly Joan Wolf, Jessie Swarm, and Lucile Snyder.

Outdoor Club . . .

The Outdoor Club, which was organized in 1930 under the leadership of Mr. Harry S. Manson, has as its aim the stimulation of interest in outdoor life and the creation of an appreciation of nature. It has as its motto: "The Natural Way To A Better Life."

The membership of the club is limited to twenty members, ten men and ten women. New members are admitted into the organization only by being elected by the old members, and membership is retained from year to year.

The officers for the first semester this year were: president, Geraldine Thorne; secretary-treasurer, Fay Sherman. Those for the second semester were: president, Charles Reed; secretarytreasurer, Joan Kroh.

Sealed: Vogel, Welch, Byers, Stewart, Hossack, A. McDonald, Hill, Andreo, Smolak.
Standing: Sherman, Thorne, Kaufman, Schierberl, Jacobs, Mr. Manson, Mr. Tippin, Murdock, Jackson, Stewart, Griffith.

Newman Club . . .

The Sewman ('lub) is a newly organized group consisting of the C'atholie students who attend Clarion state Teachers C'ollege. It was organized the second week in January by the Reverend A. A. Fisher of Clarion. for the purpose of gathering these students to disense current topics of religions importance.

The Club meets every two weeks. Reverend Fisher presides as ('haplain. and the student- take charge of the meeting. The first discussion of importance was "Our Modern Movies." The following meeting a discussion on child labor aroused active comment among the members.

As the chub is new organization, it ha- not had much chance as yet to organize fully, but the stmdent interest is increasing and as time goes on, it will grow.

Y. W. C. A. . .

The Y.IW.C.A. started the new school term by having a pajama party for the new freshman girls. The chief aim was to get these new girls acquainted with one another so they could feel themselves members of one big family.

This association aims to create a feeling of friendship among the girls that they may have a spirit of sisterhood towards one another. Each Wednesday evening from seven to eight o'clock the leaders conduct devotional services on topics selected by the Y.W.C.A. cabinet. These meetings are in charge of the "Y" Cabinet Members, each one taking the duty week about. All the "Y" girls enter into the discussion to make the services interesting.

New books and pamphlets have been purchased for the organization. These books are placed in the library or in the "Y" parlor in Becht Hall.

Through Miss Sims, the adviser, the "Y.W." was able to bring Miss Rebecca Ciriest to the College. Miss Griest showed pictures and gave an interesting talk on the work of a missionary woman in China. The pictures, shown in the geography room of Science Hall, were open to all college students.

This year the enrollment increased from eighteen members to twenty-two. The girls who are living in town took a great interest in the work this year and it is hoped this interest will continue throughout the coming year.

Long, Deily, Fiyin, Craig, Lavghiek, Rodgers.

Y. M. C. A. . . . .

The Young Men's Christian Association has tried in its meetings to cultivate a spirit of fellowship among the men and to stimulate wholesome, lofty ideals and attitudes toward ('bristian living and especially toward campus life.

During the year the " Y " has had especially enthusiastic and heneficial meetings, with an average attendance of about a dozen members. Some of the meetings have been of the group discussion type, but in most of them there have been spakers. During the year very interesting and inspirational talks have been given by Mr. Becker, Mr. Manson, Mr. C:arey, Mr. Kubner, Mr. Hoyt, Dr. Cordier, and Dr. Pierce of the faculty, and hy Dr. Harry Stahlman.

The work of the " $Y$ "" this year has been administered by the following officers: Morgan Jones, president; Mareus Priester, vice president; Tom Plyler, secretary; and Robert ('rissman, treasurer.

A splendidspirit of eooperation and a spiritual uplift have dominated the work of the Y.M.('.A. this year. A great deal of the suecess of the organization has been due to the faithfulness and energetic activity of a prominent faculty memher, Mr. Charles Becker.

Women's Student Council

The Women's Student Council is the governing body of Becht Hall. It is the Council's duty to keep things running smoothly in the Hall. The group is composed of fourteen members. The officers of the Council for this year were: Mary Belle Calhoun, president; Lorraine Griffith, secretary; and Geraldine Slagle, treasurer. Betty Dunne was the president of the entire hall this past year.

The members were: Margaret Akers, Eleanor Laughner, Geraldine Slagle, Bonnie Bell, Mary Belle Calhoun, Lorraine Griffith, Isabel Bonnett, Fern Brooks, Betty Dunne, Edytha Homan, Mary Olive Longwell, Evelyn Craig and Katherine Minns.

In the capacity of "Big Sisters" the Women's Student Council facilitates the orientation of each year's freshmen. It promotes a home-like atmosphere in considering the personal problems of each individual, in purchasing publications for the lounge, in sending floral tributes, and in extending condolences in times of illness or death. The Troman's Student Council has completed a successful year under the able supervision of our dean of women, Miss Helen D. Sims.

Student Senate . . .

The Student Community Senate is a government body representative of the students of the College. It consists of twelve members. The women resident students, the women day students, and the resident and day men students are the groups represented by the twelve members of the Senate. Respectively, the representatives are: Mary Belle Calhoun, Edytha IIoman, and Lucille Rockey; Eleanor Fulton, Elsie Paup and Geraldine Thorn; Willard Miller, Morgan Jones, and Edward Jacols; Edward Schierberl, Paul Griffen, and Russell Johnson.

After each group elects its representative for the Community Senate, the entire student body elects the officers by popular vote. This year the president of the body was Willard Miller, with Edward Jacobs as vice president, and Geraldine Thorne, secretary.

From the Senate members, various committees are selected whose duty it is to plan and regulate the social affairs of the student body on the eampus. The chapel committee, headed by Edward Jacobs and assisted by Willard Miller, Miss Sims, and Mr. Manson, is one of the most important. Lyeeum and chapel programs for the year are dependent on this committee. The social calendar is planned and directed by the soeial committee, headed by Edytha Homan.

Constantly, the Senate has aimed to reflect student spirit and wishes in its work. Student entertaimment, welfare, and education are the keynotes of its activities.

Coach Waldo Tippin is completing his second year as Blue and Gold mentor. He is friendly and agreeable to everyone and is well liked for his fine attitude toward Clarion. Though his teams have not been topnotch winners, our coach has done commendable work, with the material he has had. Under his leadership, a splendid intra-mural program has been made possible. Mr. Tippin believes in conducting an athletic program in which everyone ean participate. We wish him the best of luck next season.

Football Season . . .

Clarion's i936-37 grid machine was a success as far as willingness and cooperation were concernerl. The squad was composed of inexperienced men for the most part, and Coach Tippin was handicapped at the outset by lack of heavy material. The men representing our school deserve a great deal of credit for the valiant struggle they put up against overwhelming odds.

Basketball Season . . .

The basketball men met with fair success this season. At the beginning of the year things looked better than they had in the past and the first three games ended with victories for us. The injury of our co-captain, Mike Bedzyk, darkened our hopes. This was soon followed by the loss of Hetrick, star forward, for three games. The college is proud of the year's record and hopes that next year's team may finish the season successfully.

Helen Barton . . .

If a girl received nothing more from athletics than a deeper friendship with our instructor, she would be more than repaid for her efforts. No campus could ever boast of a more worthy teacher, leader, and friend. She is fair, square, and all that a good sport should be. Clarion's women are greatly indebted to Helen Barton for the joy that her leadership and friendship have brought.

Helen M. Bartos

Physical Education . . .

The department of physical education for women endeavors to accomplish a three-fold purpose.

First, it seeks to offer the individual opportunities for the improvement of her general physical welfare through the development of a better coordinated neuro-muscular person. No one can hope to attain her most coveted aims in life if she is a physical misfit who lacks poise because of a chronically mal-aligned posture. She can not hope to partieipate in the economic and social struggle of adulthood if she is organically handicapped by a physical mechanism which is functionally inadequate to meet demands. She can not justly evaluate herself nor will the community so evaluate her if she is physically incapable of rendering service to either.

The second purpose is to provide opportunities for the broadening of social attitudes through recreational experiences with her fellow students. Team games afford a chance for the over-sensitive girl to lose herself in play situations and thus to forget herself in pleasurable experiences of an extrovertive nature. In the intra-mural sports program this is possible as well as it is in the conducted class games, and it is through such continual group participation that such a person gradually gains the self assurance she needs.

Through individual sports a girl may develop her interests in skill perfection rather than in mass participation. Here is the opportunity for the better coordinated person to meet the challenge of competition against her own imperfections. It is true that in so doing she limits her scope of social contacts, as such games rarely involve more than four people at the most, but by this manifestation of interest in self improvement she is placing herself on a level with a more selected social group.

Since this is primarily an institution for the professional training of teachers it follows therefore that the department has a third purpose which is the preparation of students in its special field. Economic conditions today are no respectors of individual tastes and the student who has been trained in the principles of physical education is in a far better position to accept a place in the present educational system than one without that experience. Too narrow a field of preparation is synonymous with a very limited vocational placement in one's early years of teaching. This third purpose, however, would be quite unattainable were cognizance not taken of the two preceding ones.

Womens Athletic Council

The Clarion State Teachers College women spend many happy hours in sports as a result of the careful planning and eroarhing of the W. A.C. members. Fheh year this council works out an intra-mural shorts program which consists of various tournaments to be played throughout the year. The various tournaments are played between the freshmetn and sophomore girls and are cooched by W.A.C. mombers. The two teams elect their own eaptains ant managers who in turn select rlass teams from their squads. During the tournament W.A.C. girls observe the playors and form their opinions. From the two teams the W.A.C. chooses an honorary varsity. Points are awarded to girls for being present at wo thirds of the practices, making the rlass team, and being ehosen for the varsity. In the spring the sums are found and comparesl. The ten bighest girls are awarded letters which automatically makes them members of the Women's Athetie Council. The winners in the tournaments for the year 1936-37 are:

Hockey Sophomores
Soceer-two games, tied; third-defaulted
Baskethall-Sojhomores
The W.A.C. also sponsors tournaments hetween sorority and mon-sorority girls, The Nigma Delta Phis were winners of this year's tomenament.

It is an annual eustom that the W.A.C. hold a Play Day in the spring. At this time girls are invited from various high schools to come to the eolle ${ }^{\text {on }}$ for a day of fun.

Music and Art at Clarion . . .

Ghabys Rich

This sehool year has witnessed some of the most successful performances ever given by the music and art departments of the College. These successful activities are due in large part to the abilities of Miss Cladys Rich, music supervisor, and Miss Hazel Siandford, director of art.

The musical organization and the art department, as well as the College Players, provide the means by which frequent contaet is made with the public. Entertainment given in carefully plamerl, heautiful settings has drawn deserving attention to the school and given immeasurable satisfaction to the students.

The high spot of the year for both departments was the presentation of the (iilbert and Sullivan operetta $I I$. M. S. Pinufore. Attendance at the performances more than acknowledged the skilful musieal direction and the realistic stage setting. During the Christmas season, the old song, Twelee Days of Christmos, was dramatized. Again costume and other properties bore the stamp of the art department's careful work.

During the year, the A cappella Choir, with properties furnished by the art students, has given programs in the surrounding communities and in New Castle and Pittsburgh. The value of the experienees thus aceruing to the members of the Choir is evident.

Apart from its activities with the musical organizations, the art department has wom due reeognition through its individual efforts. This year, five posters, representative of the work done in the Art I elasses, were entered in a state contest which was inaugurated by the Department of Public Instruction and held in Harrishurg. Commendation for the high quality of workmanship was reeeived from the director of art in Harrisburg, Dr. Kirly. A number of art exhibits have been held in Thardens Stevens Training School and in the art room during the year.

A large part of the yearly work arr the decorations supplied for the school danees. The fitness and originality of the deeorations add much to the gaiety of the oeeasions. From the art department, too, eome the posters that herald the College foothall battles.

It is difficult to pieture college life at Clarion without the contributions of these two departments. Their willing cooperation has multiplied a hundredfold their individual benefits to the students.

Is it not significant that in the crowded hours of the college student's life a few of them do find time for regular music making just for fun? Such music lovers are the members of the Glee Clubs. A Cappella Choir, and Orchestra.

The Glee Clubs provide a "fellowship" unit to students interested in music. Out of their friendly comradeship developed three outstanding social and musieal events of the rear. "The Twelve Days of Christmas" presented in Chapel on December 16, "H.M.S. Pinafore" March +-5 , and the Golden Jubilee Concert on April 12. The Men's Glee Club made its first appearance in Chapel on November i2, when they sang, "Pale in the Amber West" by Park. The Women's Glee Club assisted with a chapel program on February iI, when they sang "The Snow" by Edward Elgar with Esther Hartman at the piano and a violin obligato played by Mr. Donald Graff and Miss Margaret Dale. The music organizations also took charge of the chapel program following the AllSchool dinner on December i6, when they presented a pageant called "The Twelve Days of Christmas," a dramatization of the old English carol of the same name. The second main attraction was the presentation of the popular Gilbert and Sullivan operetta "H.M.S. Pinafore," a satire on British Navy life. The grand finale of the music organizations was the Annual Spring Concert of April I2, presented to commemorate the joth anniversary of the founding of our college. The Women sang "Love in Brit-

Cold awares were given this year to Morgan Jones and Tom Plyler; silver awards were given Dorothy Fischer, Muriel Wolstencroft, Frances Wrigglesworth and Lorraine Griffith.

The A Cappella Choir was organized by Mise Gladys Rich in 1933 to afford specially talented persons the opportunity of studying more advanced choral music and training in ensemble singing. The Choir has the privilege of representing the eollege by presenting choral programs throughout the service area. On February 25, the choir gave a program of Russian music in the College Chapel and made a colorful group in their Russian eostumes. This same program was given during April in the high schools at Emlenton, Ridgway, Clarion, and Punxsutawney.

While the college orehestra is small it is a very neeessary and worthwhile organization on the campus. Besides furnishing music between ate for the College Players produetions, it also plays an important part in the Bacealaureate and Commencement excreists. In the Golden Jubilee Concert the orehestra played "Pique Dame" by" Von supple and "Invitation to the Dance" by Von Weber.

The College Players . . .

The College Players, campus dramatic organization, has functioned continously since April, 1920. Club meetings are held bi-monthly. At these meetings, various aspects of dramatics are discussed and illustrated by the members, and one-act plays are given from time to time. During the first semester of this year, a number of small groups were formed within the organization in order to give greater opportunities for active participation in the various phases of dramatic activity. (All of the group leaders chosen were members of Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatic fraternity. The five groups formed and their leaders were: play writing, Virginia Kaufman;

MISS MARWICK stagecraft, Willard Miller; puppetry, Miss Marwick; technique of acting, James Call; make-up, Miss Boyd.)

The major activity of The College Players is the production of plays for both college and community. The Players also give invaluable aid to other organizations on the campus, furnishing actors, electricians, stage managers, and other workers in the field of dramatics. They provide properties, stage equipment, and service to entertainers on the Lyceum Course. The College Players capably assisted the traveling troupe that presented "Dear Brutus" and "A Midsummer Night's Dream." A stage crew and a wardrobe mistress gave valuable assistance to Miss Miriam Marmein, the dance mime, who spoke highly of their ability and competence.

Under the direction of Miss Margaret Boyd, The College Players presented in the college assembly on October 29 the one-act play, "Command Performance." As staged by the Players, this interesting drama of the Orient was given a striking and colorful setting, suggestive of the high caste and opulence of the Maharajah, dominant character of the play, a role ably interpreted hy Dean Mrkinney: Other characters were played hy Morgan Jones. Margaret Akers. Joe sichierherl, Chester Brogan. Ardelle Whitman, Walter Haskell. Margaret Dale. Homer Horner, and Bonnic Bell.

The show Off," a famous three-act comedy hy George Kelly, was produced by The College Players on Novenzer 24 under the direction of Miss Marie Marwick, eluh adviser and director of dramatics. This tremendously human and appealing comedy was accorded a most enthusiastic reception hy one of the largest audiences cver assembled in the chapel for a college production, and was given high praise by all who saw it. Tirginia Kaufman portrayed the character of Mrs. Fisher with intelligence and artistry. James Call. playing the title role, made of Aubrey Piper the very human, blundering. wholly irresponsible egotist that the playwright intended him to he. All other members of the east performed capably and worked together to produce a smooth and finished performance. They were: Grace Giles, Marian Renn. Willard Miller, Tom Plyler, John Haskell, Jaek Reed, and Chester Brogan.

The last production of the year was the three-act comedy, "Your C'nele Dudley," presented on the evening of Parent's Day. The two outstanding roles were played by Willard Miller and Virginia Kaufman, valuable members of The College Players for four years. Both achieved distinet success in their final appearance in college dramatics at Clarion. Frances Wriglesworth. Fred Marshall, Isabel Bonnett, Marian Renn, and Dean MeKinney aequitted themselves ereditably. With this bright comedy, The Players rang down the final eurtain on their dramatic activities for 1936-1937.

Clarion Call . . .

The Clarion Call, the newspaper of the College, is published periodically throughout the school term by a staff of students interested in journalism. The cost of publication is paid by the Student Cooperative Association from the student activity fee.

This year the members of the Press Club were entertained at two luncheons, one at the home of Virginia Kaufman and the other at the home of its sponsor, Miss Bertha Nair. These luncheons were informal in character. During the luncheon hour a business meeting was held. For its regular meetings, the club met every two weeks in Miss Nair's classroom, where problems relating to journalism and the school paper were discussed.

In October the members of the Press Club journeyed to Pittsburgh where they visited the Cathedral of Learning, the Carnegie Institute of Technology, and the Pittsburgh Sun Telegraph establishment.

Besides publishing the Clarion Call, the Press Club acts as the official publicity staff of the College. It prepares and sends out articles to the newspapers in this district.

The staff is particularly grateful to Miss Nair, who has given so much of her time and interest to make the paper a success. Sincere appreciation is extended to the editor, Miss Virginia Kaufman, to the associate editor, Mr. Marcus Priester, and to the club's secretary-treasurer, Miss Mary Belle Rodgers.

The Sequelle . . .

The siaquele's purpose is to create by word and picture activities of this sehool year in such a way that many happy hours spent on the campus will he preserved in memory.

Sequele activities began last spring with the annual election of officers. The second task was the selection of the eompanies to cugrave and publish the Sequelle. This work fell upon the shoulders of the editor, Miss Margaret Dale; the business manager, Willard Miller; and the faculty adviser of the Sequelle staff, Miss Bertha V. Nair. Many attractive offers were presented by various establishments. After much consideration and deliberation the engraving contract was let to the Pontiae Engraving ('ompany, Chicago, Illinois; the printing contract to the (iray Printing Company of DaBois, Pennsylvania; and the photography to Carl and Don Studio, ('larion, Pennsylvania.

Perhaps the SEquelle's most difficult task was to assign and collect write-ups from fellow students. We state this, remembering also the business manager's task of colleeting Sequeleb dues, and the difficulty of attempting to make the sun shime and the wind stop Howing so that Siequelle pietures conld be taken.

The staff have done their best to achieve iwo goals. First, they have amed to make this edition of the sequeles as beautiful and as artistic as limited finances would permit. Second, they have tried to pieture every student at least once, cither in group or individually. To suceced was an arduons and exacting task overeome only by the exeellent leadership and cooperation of the staff.
